DECISION NOTICE

The applicant has approached this Commission submitting, inter-alia, that in spite of the orders passed by the first Appellate Authority, the PIO has not complied with the orders and the information requested has not been furnished till date. Even if part of the information sought was not available, the matter was required to be referred to the concerned Court u/s 6(3) (i) However since it is the responsibility of the First Appellate Authority to ensure that the orders passed by it are duly complied with by the PIO, the Commission, therefore, has decided to remand the case back to the first Appellate Authority to ensure that its orders under section 19(1) are duly complied with and the requested information furnished in terms of the order so passed within ten working days of the receipt of this Decision Notice, with the qualification that now, in accordance with Sec 7(6) of the RTI Act, 2005, no fees will be charged, and the information held by another public authority will be transferred to that authority forthwith, for consideration of disclosure under its rules, which we have found consistent with the RTI Act 2005..

Announced in the hearing. Notice of this decision be given free of cost to the parties.
